

TROUBLE FEARED OVER WHITE GIRLS AT CHINESE OUTING

"Sweethearts," Barr'd From Excursion Boat, Start for Bear Mountain by Train.

Five minutes after the steamboat Mandarin left Battery Park this morning with 2,000 Chinamen aboard and their sweethearts and wives, bound for a day's outing at Bear Mountain, up the Hudson, the New York police notified the police of Inferno Park to be on the lookout for "trouble" when the festivities got under way.

The reason for this was that about 200 "young men about Chinatown," who were not Chinese, had been refused admission to the boat although they had tickets, and had hurried over to the West Shore Railroad, determined to get to Bear Mountain, anyhow. And hereby hangs another reason, the fact that there were about 200 American girls in the outing party, claimed as sweethearts by the storefront "young men about Chinatown," who resented the high-handed action of the Chinese in appropriating them for the outing.

The young men wanted to go with the girls and the Chinese were just as determined that they shouldn't, so strict orders were issued that not a single white man should go on the excursion save the fifty or sixty New York policemen who were especially invited guests.

This outing, known as the "Gee Yin Share," for which the tickets were $2, was for the diversion not only of the Chinese of this city and Brooklyn, but for their fellows from Boston, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, who arrived in large delegations, bringing their Caucasian ladyfairs with them in many instances. When the crowd started to go aboard the Mandarin, Detective Benjamin Bailey, of Inspector McDonald's staff, who knows Chinatown as he knows the back of his hand, stood at the gangway to discourage the young Americans who wanted to go. He watched the gaudily dressed Chinese boys and girls troop up with their fathers and mothers and also watched the splendidly got-up American girls as they boarded the boat with their Chinese admirers.
But he put out his hand and shook his head when the American contingent tried to follow.

His action no doubt disappointed some of the girls, because one of them leaned over the rail and begged that "fellow" be permitted to join her.
Bailey shook his head and replied, "If I let all these fellows on there wouldn't be a watch left in the party!"

When the barred ones saw there was no chance of getting on the Mandarin they said they'd beat the Chinamen at their own game and get to Bear Mountain long before the boat, and not-footed it for the railroad.

BOY DROWNS AT PATERSON.

Five-year-old Peter Deanna of Paterson, N. J., with a number of companions, was playing along the railway at the foot of McBride Avenue yesterday, when he lost his balance and fell into the swift running water. His companions tried for help, and Charles Septon, sixteen, went overboard after him and brought him ashore. At St.
John's Hospital the physicians were unable to revive the boy.

The body of an unidentified man was found by the police of Harbor & In the North River off 10th Street yesterday.
He was about thirty-five, five feet eight inches tall, weighed 170 pounds, was smooth shaven and had dark hair. He was dressed in grey clothing, white and red striped shirt, white turnover collar.
